Dear Fellow BGSU Alumni,

I am the new Director of Athletic Ticket Sales at Bowling Green State University. It's an exciting time for BGSU Athletics! As our 2008 Home Opener on September 6th quickly approaches, our Falcon Football Team is poised for a 2nd straight season-opening showdown with Minnesota. It marks the first time ever that BGSU will host a Big Ten Conference opponent at The Doyt!

My job is to deliver a Falcon Fan Experience like no other and pack the stands! To do that, I realize that you can be an important part of our success! Whether through group ticket sales, season ticket sales or corporate outings, we want to welcome you back to BGSU.

Our Athletic program, in a combined effort, has made significant changes to take BGSU to 'the next level' through competition and academics. As a BG grad myself, I returned to Northwest Ohio with a renewed sense of enthusiasm to meet as many alumni as possible and I invite you to once again, connect with BGSU.

This season, we have 5 dynamic opportunities for you to gather and enjoy a great day of Falcon Football with friends, family, business associates and alumni. If you haven't yet come out to a game to check out the multi-million dollar stadium upgrade to turf and the impressive addition of the Sebo Athletic Center, BGSU provides an outstanding 'game day experience' and we want you to be a part of it!

Here's our 2008 Home Football Schedule:

October 4	BGSU vs. EASTERN MICHIGAN	Homecoming
October 18	BGSU vs. MIAMI	Family Weekend
November 1	BGSU vs. KENT STATE	Hall of Fame Weekend

Today, we are less than 120 days to the 2008 Home Opener....the countdown is underway! Call me directly to get the most affordable way to get to the game and enjoy a great day at The Doyt!

Roll Along!
